BYLAWS
of the
National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, Inc.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS Churches of the congregational order have historically held to certain truths, chief among which are the freedom of the Christian man maintained at all costs and all hazards; the right of the local Church to self-government in all matters temporal and spiritual, because of Christ's word that where two or three are gathered together in His name He is in their midst; the fellowship of Churches in the spirit of love, without compulsion or restraint and free from the bondage of creed or ecclesiastical control, and,

WHEREAS the congregational way is one of the great outer and corporate expressions of the inner and individual life, and,

WHEREAS the needs of our time demand that these timeless principles be revived and given national, as well as local, expression, and,

WHEREAS the advance in transportation and communication is such that Churches a continent apart are now as near together as the contiguous Churches of yesterday, and,

WHEREAS it is desirable that Congregational Christian Churches have an organization embracing the entire nation, of which the members shall be Churches, and through which they may take counsel and may realize their common purposes, and advance God's Kingdom;

WHEREAS Churches by delegates assembled in Detroit, Michigan, on November 9 and 10, 1955, first organized and elected temporary officers of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches;

THEREFORE WE, the Churches by our delegates here assembled in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin this 25th day of October, 1956, do covenant in this National Association of Congregational Christian Churches to walk together in the ways which God anciently revealed to our fathers, and in such further ways as He may yet reveal to us, the present form and purposes being hereinafter stated. Amen.

This Preamble (from the original Articles of Association) was written before the present concern for inclusive language and prior to the incorporation of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, Inc. Because it is an historic document its wording has been left unchanged.

PLEASE NOTE: Consistent with the autonomy of each congregation in the NACCC, no individual, either elected or appointed, serving the NACCC, may speak for the member churches, nor may any person express opinions on matters on behalf of the NACCC as a whole unless authorized and directed by the Board of Directors or the delegates assembled in annual or special meeting.

ARTICLE I – Purpose

The National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, Inc. or (“NACCC”) is organized exclusively for religious and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as set forth in its Articles of Incorporation. To the extent consistent with the above general purposes, the specific purposes of the NACCC shall be as follows:

- to provide a means by which Congregational Christian Churches of this nation may, without disturbing or altering their present associations and affiliations, consult and advise together as Churches upon matters of common concern to them, both temporal and spiritual;
- to provide this closer fellowship and unity in all spiritual matters among Congregational Christian Churches;
- to aid, in such ways as may from time to time be appropriate and proper, the continuance and growth of those Christian purposes and practices which have been the historic and accepted characteristics of Congregational Christian Churches;
- to promote, to carry on, and to coordinate such cooperative activities among member Churches as to them from time to time may seem wise and expedient; and
- upon application therefore by member Churches, to provide for them such assistance, whether financial or through advice and consultation or otherwise, as may be proper and expedient without violating the autonomy of member Churches.

ARTICLE II – Membership

1. Membership. Membership in the NACCC shall be by Congregational Christian Churches, which membership shall not be considered inconsistent with membership in any other Congregational Christian Association or conference. Part of the covenant responsibility of membership referred to in the Preamble includes sympathy with the purpose of the NACCC, support of its benevolent and community interests, and service in its practical work. All members of the NACCC shall be expected to contribute to the general fund (also referred to as the Shared Ministries Fund) according to their ability.
 - a. A Congregational Christian Church shall be defined as a body of Christians
 - i. which is complete under God in spiritual authority and ecclesiastical power, regularly meeting and worshiping in one place, united by a mutually owned covenant, in fellowship with sister Congregational Christian Churches;
 - ii. with its governance vested in its members, which, while independent in their action, honor the principles of fellowship and rules of common usage of the churches of the Congregational Way of faith and order; and
 - iii. which is recognized by the laws of the place of location as a duly constituted Church.
 - b. A Congregational Christian Church may request membership in the NACCC following congregational action taken at any duly called and held meeting of such Church, which congregational action shall then be certified to the Secretary of the NACCC by the Church clerk or proper Church official.

- i. Application for membership shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the NACCC on the forms approved by the Board of Directors and provided for that purpose.
 - ii. The Secretary shall transmit the application and required supporting documentation to the Leadership Council who shall review the application and documents to determine the qualification of the applicant. The Leadership Council shall recommend such qualified candidate to the delegates at the next annual meeting of the members, for acceptance into membership in the NACCC. Membership is granted upon an affirmative majority vote of the voting members present.

- 2. Classes of Membership. There shall be two classes of member Churches: active and inactive.
 - a. An active member Church is one which makes a yearly financial contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund.
 - i. An active member Church shall be a “voting member” of the NACCC with all the rights and privileges as allowed by the Articles of Incorporation and these bylaws. Each voting member shall be entitled to one vote, as set forth in these Bylaws (Art.III.8.), on the election of directors, officers, council and committee members, on the disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the NACCC, on any merger and its principal terms and any amendment of those terms, on any election to dissolve the NACCC, on any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, on the adoption, amendment or repeal of these Bylaws, ratification of Board of Directors and Leadership Council actions taken “ad interim”, and on such other matters as may be specifically set forth in these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation from time to time which expressly provide for a vote of the members.
 - ii. Active Member Churches are strongly encouraged to submit an annual statistical report for the Yearbook and to select an Official Meeting Delegate and a Year Round Delegate to the NACCC.
 - b. An inactive member Church is one that does not make a financial contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund during the current fiscal year of the NACCC and therefore becomes inactive as of the first day of the next fiscal year (April 1).
 - i. A Church which fails to make such a contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund shall be notified by the Secretary of the NACCC that it has been placed on the list of inactive member Churches and shall not be eligible to vote as a member on any matters brought before the membership or to receive any additional services of the NACCC.
 - ii. An inactive Church shall be immediately restored to active status upon confirmation by the Secretary of receipt of a contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund of the NACCC subject to stipulations of Art.II.3.c.

- 3. Transfers, Withdrawal or Removal of a Member Church.
 - a. No member may transfer membership or any right or rights related thereto.
 - b. Membership may be withdrawn from the NACCC by any member Church at any time following congregational action taken at any duly called and held meeting of such Church, which congregational action shall then be certified in writing to the Secretary of the NACCC by the Church clerk or proper Church official. Such withdrawal shall not affect said Church’s temporal or spiritual rights as a Congregational Christian Church. Membership in the NACCC, however, shall be terminated by such voluntary withdrawal, and thereafter all rights of the member in the NACCC shall cease. Any contributions to the Shared Ministries Funds of the NACCC are nonrefundable.
 - c. If a member Church fails to make an annual contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund for three successive fiscal years, its name shall be removed from the roll of member Churches and the name of its minister shall be removed from the list of ministers in the Yearbook. The Secretary of the NACCC shall notify the Church in writing of said actions and provide instructions outlining the procedure for reinstatement as a member Church of the NACCC pursuant to Art.II.3.d. below. Such notification shall express appreciation of the former member Church's original fellowship with the NACCC.

- d. A church removed from the roll of member churches in accordance with Art.II.3.c. that wishes to seek reinstatement must submit a request for reinstatement to the NACCC Secretary no later than six months following issuance of notification of removal.
 - i. The procedure for reinstatement shall include the following:
 1. A statement of congregational action taken at a duly called and held meeting of such Church, certified by the Church clerk or proper Church official that the congregation desires continued fellowship with the NACCC.
 2. A financial contribution to the Shared Ministries Fund.
 - And strongly encourage:
 1. The Church to provide the relevant statistical information of the Church, and
 2. The designation of a Year Round Delegate.

Each of the nine (9) persons must be a member in good standing of a local Congregational Church that is an active member of the NACCC. No more than four (4) members of a Referendum Council may be clergy. If the party whose action or proposal is in question shall fail or refuse to choose three persons within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice to do so from any Church that participates in the call, the Churches taking part in the call shall have the right to choose the number of persons who otherwise would have been chosen by such party.
4. Meetings. A Referendum Council meets at such times and places as are determined by the last three (3) persons chosen and considers the controversy, hearing the pleadings of both parties. All records of the NACCC and its agencies and creatures shall be available, without the necessity of legal recourse, to either or both parties. The Referendum Council shall endeavor to settle the controversy. If unable to do so, it makes its findings, which may include a minority report, formulates the question at issue, and sends the question directly to the Churches, together with a notification of the deadline for voting set by the Referendum Council.
5. Local Church Voting. The local Churches vote on the question in their own localities. Only a duly convened meeting of a local Church shall be competent to act upon a question submitted by a Referendum Council. A copy of the vote of the local Church, certified by its proper official, shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the NACCC. The Secretary shall tabulate the votes, and not later than sixty (60) days after the close of voting, notify all member Churches of the results of the balloting. A two-thirds (2/3) vote shall be necessary for an affirmative decision. No subsequent action on the part of the annual meeting of the active members of the NACCC or a special meeting of the NACCC, or on the part of any of the agencies and creatures of the NACCC, can overrule or supersede the decision of the active member Churches on a question referred to the Churches by a Referendum Council.

6. Authority of a Referendum Council. A vote on a question referred to the Churches by a Referendum Council has for the Churches as much force as force of wisdom in it lies; it is not a legal determination. No local Church can be legally bound by anything but its own actions, or the laws of the state. The Referendum Council decision and the consequent decision of the active member churches of the NACCC with regard to the question before the Referendum Council is solely directed to the NACCC as referred to in this document. Any decision of the Referendum Council can in no way ignore, contravene or alter the will of any participating, local member Church of the NACCC. Such an outcome or action is beyond the legal powers of the Referendum Council and is subject to legal action by said participating, local member Churches.

ARTICLE X – Standing and Ordination

1. Clergy List. The NACCC shall compile and publish a list of the names of those who have ministerial standing in our Churches as ordained pastors and teachers and other ministers, missionaries, college and seminary professors and chaplains. The list shall include the names of ordained Congregational ministers who are retired, and licentiates, coded to indicate their current status.
 - a. The presence or absence of the name of a pastor or minister on this list shall not be construed as either conferring or denying ministerial standing. This record is merely a list of pastors and ministers of the active member Churches of the NACCC. This list is compiled for the convenience of those concerned and as a source of information to the Churches, and it shall be published by the proper agency of the NACCC as is determined by the Leadership Council. The NACCC makes no representations as to the fitness or appropriateness of any minister or any member Church.
 - b. In no case shall any person have the right to vote in a meeting of the NACCC merely by virtue of inclusion in these lists. In every case a listed person, except a retired minister, shall be a member or an associate member of an active member Church of the NACCC.
2. Local Church Ordination. The NACCC has no power to ordain, censure, or depose a minister, or to sit as a council of reference in such cases. Ordination is the right and business of the local Church, but the following statement of things commonly held among us is germane to the purpose of the NACCC:
 - a. The local Church being complete under the Headship of Christ in all spiritual and ecclesiastical power has, and shall retain, the inalienable right to ordain. The local Church may call an ecclesiastical council as an expression of the fellowship of the Churches, but it shall be remembered that ordination is by the local Church.
 - b. Ordination by the local Church is valid and sufficient, but it is conducive to orderliness and continuity of record that the fact of a minister's ordination be listed with a large body or bodies. This may include a local association of Congregational Churches and the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches. In the case of the NACCC, such listing shall be done under the pertinent provisions of this bylaw.

ARTICLE XI – Amendments

At any duly called and held meeting of the NACCC, a quorum being present, these Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the active member Churches represented at such meeting by their Official Meeting Delegates or designated alternate, provided that the full text of the proposed amendment or amendments shall be distributed with the call to the meeting at which they are to be considered.

ARTICLE XII – Parliamentary Authority

Unless otherwise provided, meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order (current edition).
