Jodee Lord is a member of Oakwood Heights Community Church on Staten Island, New York. She is actively involved in the life at Oakwood and its community, serving on the Board of Deacons, Church Council, Pastoral Search Committees, Board of Trustees, Church Choir, and food pantry volunteer. Jodee sits on the Board of Directors of S.I. Council of Churches as Chairperson of the Scholarship Committee and Congregational Support and Outreach. She has a deep dedication within the NACCC. She most recently served on the Board of Directors and was Chairperson of the recent Executive Director Search Committee. Jodee is currently serving on the Racial Justice Task Team, Planning and Action Committee, Sexual Abuse Task Team and Bylaws Task Team. She has served on the NACCC's Women's Commission, Division for Ministry, Transition Team, Nominating Committee, and Annual Meeting & Conference Committee. Jodee has served as the Moderator of the NY/NJ Regional Association. She is a retired Preschool Director with a degree in Education and Psychology. Jodee and her husband, Fred, of forty-five years, are the proud parents of Sarah and Julia.

SECRETARY, One-Year Term:

Dr. Kathleen (Kate) O'Dell, Anchorage, Alaska [Re-elected this year]

Kate O'Dell has lived in Alaska since 1981 and has been a member of First Congregational Church of Anchorage (FCC) for nearly 25 years. She has served the congregation in many roles, including Moderator, Clerk, chair of various boards and ministries, and a member of the Host Committee for the 2010 NACCC Annual Meeting in Anchorage. She was the FCC Administrative Assistant for eight years. In 2020, Kate was elected for a second term as Clerk of the Pacific Northwest Association of Congregational Christian Churches, and she is FCC's Year Round Delegate to the PNAACC. In 2006, Kate retired as Professor Emerita of Teacher Education with the University of Alaska Anchorage College of Education. Her most recent service to that program was as a contributing editor for accreditation self-studies. Kate has served on boards of several nonprofit organizations, frequently as the secretary, or chair of the communications committee.

TREASURER, One-Year Term:

Patrick Stewart, Marshalltown, Iowa [Newly elected this year]

Patrick served as the volunteer Youth Leader at his member church, LaMoille Congregational Church for nearly 20 years and is currently serving as the Chairperson of the Iowa-Nebraska Association Youth Task Team. Patrick has attended NAPF-HOPE conferences since 2005 and served as either an attendee, CIT, or counselor/small group leader. He has been the Youth Representative on NACCC Leadership Council for the past several years and is currently on the Annual Meeting Committee along with serving his third year on the NAPF-HOPE Planning Team. In September 1999, Patrick received his Associate's Degree in Accounting With Honors from the American Institute Of Business in Des Moines, IA. He has over 20 years of bookkeeping, budgeting, and finance experience. Patrick is employed by a local non-profit community action agency working as the Payroll Manager in the finance department. He enjoys listening to music, singing, playing co-ed softball and men's church league basketball, and watching the Iowa State Cyclones, Kansas City Chiefs, and Chicago Cubs. He really enjoys spending time with the church youth group doing fun activities and giving them the same experiences he had as a youth. Patrick looks forward to serving as the NACCC Treasurer for the next year.

HISTORIAN, One-Year Term:

Rev. Dr. Mary E. Biedron, Farmington Hills, Michigan [Re-elected this year]

Mary (Mimi) Biedron (M.Div., D.Min.) serves at North Congregational Church, Farmington Hills, MI, where she has been Associate Minister (1998-2011) and is currently Senior Minister (2011-present). Prior to that, she was the Director of Christian Education at First Congregational Church of Toledo, OH from 1981-1998, when she was active in congregational activities as a layperson. She is a 1999 graduate of the CFTS program and is currently the Moderator of the Southeastern Michigan Association of Congregational Churches, as well as a member of the Board of the Congregational Library and Archives. She and her husband, Glenn, have three adult children and two grandchildren.
