

National Association of Congregational Christian Churches
Shackleton Quiet Day Retreat
Wednesday, June 29, 2022

Perseverance and Endurance: Finding Hope and Christ Within the Story of Ernest

This year, the Quiet Day Retreat sponsored by the Congregational Retreat Society will occur for the first time after the official close of the Annual Meeting and Conference on Wednesday from 9:00am-3:30pm at the University Congregational Church, 9209 East 29th Street N, Wichita, Kansas 67226. We are grateful for their willingness to host this event.

The Rev. Justin Nierer, Chairperson of the Vitality Ministry Council of the NACCC and Senior Minister of the Sandstone Congregational Church in Jackson, Michigan, will be the Retreat Guide and he will present insights from the life of renowned explorer, Ernest Shackleton in "Perseverance and Endurance: Finding Hope and Christ Within the Story of Ernest Shackleton."

In between these offerings, there will be periods of silence for prayer, journaling, reading, or meditating on the ongoing legacy and lessons of Shackleton.

To register, contact the Rev. Dr. Charles Packer, Chaplain-Director of the Society at drcapacker@gmail.com. The cost is $25.00, which will cover lunch.

Make checks payable to the Congregational Retreat Society.

Mail to Rev. Dr. Charles Packer, 1343 Sherwood Forest Court, Waterford, Michigan 48323.

Registrations must be received by Tuesday, June 1, 2022.